*District Executive

Job Location: Wailuku, Maui

A Career in Scouting: The Boy Scouts of America provides a program for young people that builds desirable qualities of character, trains in the responsibilities of participating citizenship, and develops personal fitness. Scouting serves more than three million young men and women in every part of the country through some 290 local council service centers. District Executives have the responsibility for working with volunteer committees and community leaders to identify, recruit, train, guide and inspire them to become involved in youth programs.

Compensation & Benefits: $40,000 salary annually including full benefits (medical, dental, retirement and more). Executives also receive a car allowance, cell phone allowance, and other incentives including a 403 B matching thrift program.

Responsibilities: The District Executive is an entry-level management position having broad and varied responsibilities. Duties include promoting, supervising, and working with and through adult volunteers including parents and community leaders. The position includes:

Recruitment:

- The executive is responsible, through volunteers, for extending District's career education program to schools, religious, civic, fraternal, educational, or other community-based organizations.

Fundraising/Finance:

- Working with volunteers, professionals recruit leadership for the Friends of Scouting and finance campaign efforts to meet the financial needs of the council.

Service:

- * The professional staff provides quality service through timely communication, regular meetings, training events and activities.

Administration:

- * The executive administers the Scouting program in the Maui County area, alongside current staff based in Maui.

Public Relations:

- * Executives must be good role models. They must recognize the importance of good working relationships with other professionals and with volunteers. Scouting depends on community support and acceptance. Professional leaders must have good communication skills and be able to tell Scouting's story to the public.

Qualifications:

- * Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university (or equivalent military/work experience)
- * United States citizenship or declared intention to become a citizen
- * Driver's License and insured vehicle
- * Ability to work nights, weekends, and holidays as required
- * Must enjoy working with people from different backgrounds
